

Description

Research Drive is a service that allows researchers to share their research data with anyone in the world.

Research Drive is based on the Owncloud software (<https://owncloud.com>). The storage backend used is the SURFsara Object Store.